Zach Taylor Named PBC Baseball Player of the Week

Posted: Feb 21, 2012

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University junior outfielder Zach Taylor has been named the Peach Belt Conference's baseball Player of the Week, released on Tuesday by league officials.

Taylor had three hits in each of the Pirates' three games against No. 18 Southern Indiana, helping the Pirates to a series win over the Screamin' Eagles. He went 3-for-5 with three runs scored in game one of Friday's doubleheader, then ended up a double shy of the cycle with a 3-for-6 game in game two, driving in four runs with a two-run triple and a two-run home run.

The Statesboro, Ga., native slugged .938 for the weekend and has seven multi-hit games in Armstrong's nine games so far this season. He is second in the PBC in batting average, slugging percentage and RBIs and third in home runs.

Taylor is the second straight PBC Player of the Week for Armstrong as sophomore catcher Clayton Miller was last week's honoree.

Taylor and the No. 17-ranked Pirates open up their Peach Belt Conference slate on Saturday, February 25th, taking on No. 4 Columbus State at 3:00 p.m. in Columbus, Ga.
